

April 24, 2011
News Release

District Manager for Claims Management Group joins Work Comp Advisory Board

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Sally Ferguson, District Manager for the CorVel Corporation, is the latest addition to the advisory board for the online workers compensation resource, WCGuru.com. Adding Ferguson to the WCGuru.com board keeps in line with the company goal of having a well-versed and varied board.

“Adding Sally to our board is fantastic,” said Cathi Rogers, CEO of WCGuru.com. “This just brings another level of diversity to our advisory board and this is such a great asset for the Indiana work comp community,” Rogers said. Ferguson brings over a decade of CorVel and industry experience to the board, with a background ranging from risk management to the claims side of managed care.

“I am elated to be a part of this board,” said Ferguson. “There are so many facets in work comp and I am excited to help and learn from other board members and share with the work comp community. It’s a win-win for everyone,” said Ferguson.

Source: WCGuru.com

###

About WCGuru.com

WCGuru.com, is an online, interactive, news and information portal dedicated to the worker’s compensation professional community in Indiana and focuses on providing insight into practical issues helping to maximize a user’s time when searching for news and contact information for workers compensation law, insurance providers, employers, case managers and physicians in Indiana. The site also provides various links to worker’s compensation rules, statutes, resources, forms and offers a path for guidance on workplace injuries and disabilities. For more information visit www.wcguru.com

About CorVel Corporation

CorVel Corporation is a national provider of leading workers’ compensation solutions to employers, third party administrators, insurance companies and government agencies. CorVel specializes in applying advanced communication and information technology to improve healthcare management. CorVel Corporation is publicly traded company on the NASDAQ (CRVL). The Company has more than 30 years of healthcare management experience and has been listed by Forbes as one of the 200 Best Companies in America.