Work Comp Advisory Board Member Receives Distinguished Honor

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Tim Malloy of Schreiner Malloy & Etzler, an Indiana law firm concentrating in the areas of workers compensation, personal injury, social security disability and criminal law, recently received the distinguished honor of becoming a “fellow” of the College of Workers’ Compensation Lawyers. Members of the College demonstrate outstanding traits during their more than 20 years of practice with the representation of plaintiffs, defendants, serving as judges, or acting for the benefit of all in education, overseeing agencies and developing legislation.

“I am very humbled to be the recipient of this nomination,” said Malloy. “No wait. Very humbled doesn’t even scratch the surface of how honored I am to be in the same category with these guys.” Of the 41 inductees for the 2011 class of Inductees, Malloy, who is an advisory board member for the online workers compensation resource WCGuru.com, was the only Fellow nominated from the state of Indiana.

Those accepting the Fellowship in the College are committed to a lifelong dedication of maintaining high standards of professional conduct and scholarly pursuits. Malloy is senior partner of Schreiner, Malloy & Etzler and has offices in Northwest Indiana, Chicago, Illinois, Evansville, Indiana and Lexington, Kentucky. His practice concentrates in personal injury, Worker’s Compensation and Social Security Disability, representing the Plaintiff.
